A Full Service Creative House

House of Wolf is a creative house designed to make meaningful connections with artists and freelancers. We operate as a full spectrum agency providing branding, wardrobe, and marketing solutions to our members and as a community curating The Circle Magazine, writing workshops, and a range of other creative and wellness events, together.

Our legacy is to create a world where all people feel free to express their identity, sexuality, and ideas with pride.

Manifesto

Do what you love, love hard, eat well, think big, play often, do good, spread joy, go with the flow, leave the world better than you found it when you go.
